GOVERNMENT'S SENTENCING MEMORANDUM

The United States of America hereby files its Sentencing Memorandum in the above matter.

I. Witnesses:

The government does not anticipate calling any witnesses at sentencing.

II. Exhibits:

The government does not anticipate submitting any exhibits at sentencing.

III. Issues:

The government does not believe there are any sentencing issues that must be resolved. The parties have executed a Rule 11(c)(1)(C) plea agreement pursuant to which the parties have agreed to recommend defendant be sentenced to 180 months imprisonment.

IV. Conclusion:

In accord with the plea agreement in this matter, the United States' recommends the defendant serve 180 months' imprisonment with no less than five years of supervised release to follow.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER E. DEEGAN, JR.
United States Attorney
